To accompany Notice to Mariners 1871/18

On Chart 2056

HISTORIC WRECKS
The sites of historic wrecks are protected from unauthorised interference. Diving, fishing and anchoring are prohibited.

To accompany Notice to Mariners 1871/18

On Chart 2862

HISTORIC WRECKS
The sites of historic wrecks are protected from unauthorised interference. Diving, fishing and anchoring are prohibited.

To accompany Notice to Mariners 1874/18

On Chart 1649

TRANSIT CORRIDORS
Transit corridors have been established off the west coast of Mindanao, through Sulu Archipelago and in the channels east of Sabah to prevent or suppress acts of piracy and armed robbery against vessels transitting these areas. Vessels intending to use these corridors should notify the Indonesian, Malaysian or Philippine authorities. For further details, see Admiralty List of Radio Signals, Admiralty Maritime Security Chart Q6113 and The Mariner’s Handbook.

To accompany Notice to Mariners 1874/18

On Chart 1680

TRANSIT CORRIDORS
Transit corridors have been established off the west coast of Mindanao, through Sulu Archipelago and in the channels east of Sabah to prevent or suppress acts of piracy and armed robbery against vessels transitting these areas. Vessels intending to use these corridors should notify the Indonesian, Malaysian or Philippine authorities. For further details, see Admiralty List of Radio Signals, Admiralty Maritime Security Chart Q6113 and The Mariner’s Handbook.
Transit corridors have been established off the west coast of Mindanao, through Sulu Archipelago and in the channels east of Sabah to prevent or suppress acts of piracy and armed robbery against vessels transiting these areas. Vessels intending to use these corridors should notify the Indonesian, Malaysian or Philippine authorities. For further details, see Admiralty List of Radio Signals, Admiralty Maritime Security Chart Q6113 and The Mariner’s Handbook.
TRANSIT CORRIDORS
Transit corridors have been established off the west coast of Mindanao, through Sulu Archipelago and in the channels east of Sabah to prevent or suppress acts of piracy and armed robbery against vessels transiting these areas. Vessels intending to use these corridors should notify the Indonesian, Malaysian or Philippine authorities. For further details, see Admiralty List of Radio Signals, Admiralty Maritime Security Chart Q6113 and The Mariner’s Handbook.

TRANSIT CORRIDORS
Transit corridors have been established off the west coast of Mindanao, through Sulu Archipelago and in the channels east of Sabah to prevent or suppress acts of piracy and armed robbery against vessels transiting these areas. Vessels intending to use these corridors should notify the Indonesian, Malaysian or Philippine authorities. For further details, see Admiralty List of Radio Signals, Admiralty Maritime Security Chart Q6113 and The Mariner’s Handbook.

TRANSIT CORRIDORS
Transit corridors have been established off the west coast of Mindanao, through Sulu Archipelago and in the channels east of Sabah to prevent or suppress acts of piracy and armed robbery against vessels transiting these areas. Vessels intending to use these corridors should notify the Indonesian, Malaysian or Philippine authorities. For further details, see Admiralty List of Radio Signals, Admiralty Maritime Security Chart Q6113 and The Mariner’s Handbook.

TRANSIT CORRIDORS
Transit corridors have been established off the west coast of Mindanao, through Sulu Archipelago and in the channels east of Sabah to prevent or suppress acts of piracy and armed robbery against vessels transiting these areas. Vessels intending to use these corridors should notify the Indonesian, Malaysian or Philippine authorities. For further details, see Admiralty List of Radio Signals, Admiralty Maritime Security Chart Q6113 and The Mariner’s Handbook.
To accompany Notice to Mariners 1874/18

On Chart 4499

TRANSPORT CORRIDORS
Transit corridors have been established off the west coast of Mindanao, through Sulu Archipelago and in the channels east of Sabah to prevent or suppress acts of piracy and armed robbery against vessels transiting these areas. Vessels intending to use these corridors should notify the Indonesian, Malaysian or Philippine authorities. For further details, see Admiralty List of Radio Signals, Admiralty Maritime Security Chart Q6113 and The Mariner's Handbook.

To accompany Notice to Mariners 1874/18

On Chart 4507

TRANSPORT CORRIDORS
Transit corridors have been established off the west coast of Mindanao, through Sulu Archipelago and in the channels east of Sabah to prevent or suppress acts of piracy and armed robbery against vessels transiting these areas. Vessels intending to use these corridors should notify the Indonesian, Malaysian or Philippine authorities. For further details, see larger scale charts, Admiralty List of Radio Signals, Admiralty Maritime Security Chart Q6113 and The Mariner's Handbook.

To accompany Notice to Mariners 1874/18

On Chart 4508

TRANSPORT CORRIDORS
Transit corridors have been established off the west coast of Mindanao, through Sulu Archipelago and in the channels east of Sabah to prevent or suppress acts of piracy and armed robbery against vessels transiting these areas. Vessels intending to use these corridors should notify the Indonesian, Malaysian or Philippine authorities. For further details, see larger scale charts, Admiralty List of Radio Signals, Admiralty Maritime Security Chart Q6113 and The Mariner’s Handbook.