Forecasts and warnings are for areas not covered by NAVTEX. For broadcast schedule please refer to EGC MSI system table.

Vessels must ensure that their EGC receiver is configured to receive messages from the coastal warning area appropriate to their intended voyage. The letters A or C, as depicted on this diagram, must be pre-selected by the operator. Full instructions on this procedure can be found in the manuals supplied by the MES manufacturers.